Chapter 11 Case No.
02-40188 (REG)
(Jointly Administered)

First Interim Application of Gregory L. Rosston, As Consultant To Debtor,
For Allowance And Payment Of Compensation For Professional Services Rendered
From June 1, 2002 Through September 30, 2002

TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT E. GERBER
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Gregory L. Rosston ("Dr. Rosston"), international fiber optics market consultant to Global Crossing Ltd. ("Global Crossing" or the "Debtor"), working with The Brattle Group, Inc., ("The Brattle Group") in the above-captioned case, hereby applies for the interim allowance of compensation for professional services he performed during the period June 1, 2002 through September 30, 2002 ("Compensation Period"). In support of this First Interim Fee Application, Dr. Rosston respectfully represents as follows.

SUMMARY OF PROFESSIONAL COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES REQUESTED

1. This is Dr. Rosston's first interim application for approval for payment of professional fees pursuant to his role as international fiber optics market consultant to Debtor. This First Interim Fee Application has been prepared in accordance with sections 330 and 331 of Title 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code ("Bankruptcy Code"), Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy, the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases adopted by the Court on April 19, 1995 (the "Local Guidelines"), the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330, adopted on January 30, 1996 (the "UST Guidelines"), and the Amended Order Pursuant to Sections 105(a) and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code Establishing Procedures for Monthly Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals (the "Administrative Order," and collectively with the Local Guidelines and UST Guidelines, the "Guidelines"). Pursuant to the Local Guidelines, a certification regarding compliance with the same is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

2. Dr. Rosston seeks allowance of one hundred percent (100%) of the interim compensation for the 7.7 hours of professional services he rendered to the Debtor during the Compensation Period. Dr. Rosston's hourly billing rate for services performed is $400.00. Dr. Rosston thus seeks allowance of interim compensation in the aggregate amount of $3,080.00.

3. The fees Dr. Rosston charged in this matter are billed in accordance with his existing billing rate and procedures in effect during the Compensation Period. The rate charged for the services he rendered in this matter is the same rate he charges for services rendered in comparable nonbankruptcy related matters. His fees are consistent with those prevailing for similar services of consultants of reasonably comparable skill and reputation for nonbankruptcy clients.

4. There is no agreement or understanding between Dr. Rosston and any other person for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in these cases.

5. All of Dr. Rosston's services during the Compensation Period are in furtherance of the discrete task for which he was retained: Accounting Issues Investigation. No time was charged during the Compensation Period for services performed in connection with either Dr. Rosston's retention or billings.

6. Dr. Rosston maintains records of the time spent on this matter. A copy of these time records (the "Time Records") will be furnished to the Court and the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U. S. Trustee"), and have previously been furnished to the Debtor, the U.S. Trustee, the attorneys for the statutory committee of unsecured creditors appointed in Debtor's chapter 11 cases, the Joint Provisional Liquidators and their attorneys, and the attorneys for the Debtor's prepetition lenders in connection with Dr. Rosston's monthly fee statements.

7. Dr. Rosston has not received any retainer amount to be applied against payment for services to be rendered and expenses incurred on behalf of the Debtor.

8. Although Dr. Rosston's monthly fee statements for the Compensation Period requested payment of only eighty percent (80%) of the fees charged, he received payment for one hundred percent (100%) of the professional fees for services rendered during June and July, 2002 ($2,000.00). As of the date of this Application, Dr. Rosston has not received any payment for his work in September, 2002.

BACKGROUND OF THE CASE

9. On January 28, 2002, the Debtor and its affiliated entities, except GT U.K. Ltd. (“GTUK”) commenced a case under chapter 11 of Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. GTUK commenced its chapter 11 case on April 24, 2002. The Debtor and its affiliated entities continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Dr. Rosston respectfully relies on the description of the status of the case that may be provided by Debtor’s general bankruptcy counsel, Weil, Gotschal & Manges LLP.

10. In order to conduct an independent investigation into allegations concerning Debtor’s accounting practices, financial disclosures and related matters (“Accounting Issues”), Debtor’s Board of Directors formed a Special Committee, and thereafter retained Coudert Brothers LLP (“Coudert”) as special counsel to assist the Special Committee with specific legal expertise in corporate investigations to conduct the required independent legal investigation.

11. To perform its services, Coudert required the assistance of industry experts. By order dated October 22, 2002, nunc pro tunc to May 31, 2002, the Court approved the Debtor’s retention of Dr. Rosston as an expert on international fiber markets working with The Brattle Group.

SUMMARY OF PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

12. Given the discrete nature of Dr. Rosston’s engagement, all of his services during the Compensation Period fall within one activity category: Accounting Issues Investigation. During the Compensation Period, as requested by Coudert and working with The Brattle Group, Dr. Rosston participated in The Brattle Group's analyses of certain of the business transactions that were being investigated. As Dr. Rosston's Time Records reflect, Dr. Rosston analyzed the capacity, price, and demand data for international fiber markets, and advised The Brattle Group and Coudert on the same.

13. Dr. Rosston respectfully submits that the compensation requested for services he performed for Debtor during the Compensation Period is fully justified and reasonable based on: (a) the uniqueness of the tasks Dr. Rosston performed during the Compensation Period; (b) Dr. Rosston's experience, reputation and ability; and (c) the customary fee charged by Dr. Rosston in non-bankruptcy situations for rendering similar services. Dr. Rosston also respectfully submits that the consultation he has provided on the Accounting Issues was necessary and in the best interest of the Debtor and the estate and has furthered the goals of all parties in interest.

THE REQUESTED COMPENSATION SHOULD BE ALLOWED

14. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 330 to govern the Court's award of such compensation. 11 U.S.C. § 331. Section 330 provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." Id. § 330(a)(1). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court should consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including --

(A) the time spent on such services;

(B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and

(E) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

Id. § 330(a)(3).

15. Dr. Rosston respectfully submits that the services for which he seeks compensation in this First Interim Fee Application were, at the time rendered, believed to be necessary for and beneficial to the Debtor's investigation of the Accounting Issues, and as such, were necessary to and in the best interests of the Debtors' estates. Dr. Rosston further submits that his services and time expenditures are reasonable in light of the nature of the Accounting Issues. Accordingly, approval of the compensation sought herein is warranted.

16. Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule for the Southern District of New York 9013-1(b), because there are no novel issues of law presented herein, Dr. Rosston respectfully requests that the Court waive the requirement that he file a memorandum of law in support of this motion.

17. No previous motion for the relief sought herein has been made to this or any other court.

CONCLUSION

Dr. Rosston respectfully submits that the services summarized by this First Interim Application and rendered by Dr. Rosston to the Debtor during the Compensation Period were highly professional and have been beneficial to the Special Committee's investigation of the Accounting Issues. For the reasons stated above, Dr. Rosston submits that the compensation requested and the reimbursement of expenses incurred is necessary, fair and reasonable.

WHEREFORE, Dr. Rosston respectfully requests that this Court enter an order:

- (a) granting interim allowance of the compensation for professional services he rendered as consultant to the Debtor during the period June 1, 2002 through and including September 30, 2002, in the amount of $3,080.00;
- (b) directing payment to Dr. Rosston of such amounts representing the portion of Dr. Rosston's compensation requested in "(a)" that is unpaid or withheld by the Debtor; and
- (c) granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
